Granny's Blessing. Not a sup of parritch must Andra and wee Jean, the "litlin" of the family, dare to swallow until a blessing has been asked upon the simple meal. Granny with uplifted hand says the blessing aloud, and wee Jean lispit it after her.

"The bread and meat do Thou but bless,
And us increase with holiness,
And though our poortith bitter be,
We shall be feasting, fed by Thee."
